FORT LEE
A HUNT MILITARY COMMUNITY™

ONE MISSION. ONE COMMUNITY.

Yard Sales for May

For the month of May, there will be two days of designated yard sales.

May 12th & May 26th

For more information of the locations please visit our Facebook page or contact your Neighborhood Center.

CEL Survey

Our survey launched April 19, 2018. You should have received a short online survey to your email. We intend to use the results to identify what our Residents like and/or don't like about the property management services, the property and our performance. With your cooperation and candid responses, we can continue to improve our service to you. Neighborhood with the highest response rate, will win a block party this summer. Complete your online CEL survey for a chance to win 2 months free rent!

Life at Lee 2018

Fun and benefits for the whole family! Fort Lee Family Housing has teamed up with organizations from all over post to show residents all of the wonderful benefits provided to those living on post! Participating organizations include FMWR, ACS, PMO, The Fort Lee Fire Department and many more organizations. On May 19th, from 11am - 2pm, these sponsors will come together at the Fort Lee Family Housing Welcome Center, to support this terrific event created for service members and their families.

Days of May

5/5 Cinco De Mayo

Established in 1860's among Mexican-American communities, this holiday has been celebrated every since. It a great time to enjoy Mexican American heritage and festivals.

5/6 National Lemonade Day

A nice day to enjoy a glass of Lemonade. If you get a chance, please enjoy a fresh squeezed lemonade beverage today.

5/13 Mother's Day

Today, we give thanks & honor to our Mothers. Thank you Mom's for everything you do.

5/19 National Armed Forces Day

Established in 1949, we celebrate our men & women who serve in the the United States Armed Forces.

5/25 National Heat Awareness Day

Heat exhaustion & dehydration can lead to serious health problems if not treated properly. This day is to remind us to take good care of ourselves when those heat waves come through. Please stay hydrated & out the heat when possible.

5/28 Memorial Day

Today we honor all of our men and woman who have passed away while serving in the United States Armed Forces.
